

ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY (IUT)

A subsidiary organ of Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC)

On the occasion of the Victory Day of the Host Country, Bangladesh, Islamic University of Technology (IUT), a subsidiary organ of the 57-nation Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC), expresses its sincere felicitations to the Government and the people of Bangladesh and also shows its respect for the memories of the war martyrs.

On 16 December 1971, Bangladesh became an independent country at the cost of millions of lives. The IUT would like to wish the people of Bangladesh all success in their solemn journey towards a better and wealthy future so that the country can accomplish its rightful place among the comity of nations.

On the eve of the 16th of December, when the whole nation prepares to celebrate its Victory Day, IUT would like to take the opportunity to reiterate its deep gratitude to the great country for hosting this higher seat of learning and for providing it with moral, material and intellectual support over the years.

May the Almighty Allah continue to shower His choicest blessings upon this great nation so that it achieves even greater heights of success, progress and prosperity in the years to come - Ameen.
